Charismatic leadership Al-Sayyid Mohammad Mohammad Sadeq Al-Sadr

Although numerous studies have examined the influence of vision on outstanding leadership, relatively little is known about how leaders create, or construct, a meaningful vision. [14].

Al-Sayyid Mohammad Mohammad Sadeq Al-Sadr is considered one of the most prominent leaders and historical Islamic humanity figures in the modern modern history of Iraq, which began with the establishment of the modern Iraqi state in 1921, as we are still living in the repercussions of that historical event. In 1914, and specifically the British occupation of Iraq, which began on November 6, 1914 from the perspective of its charismatic leadership vision, it indicates the great charisma and overwhelming human presence that Al-Sayyid Mohammad Mohammad Sadeq Al-Sadr enjoys over the rest of the leaders of contemporary modern history, has the ability to influence others positively Connecting with them spiritually, physically, emotionally, culturally, religiously and socially, is a charismatic and ideological authority. Successfully developed and developed Establishing a coherent collective identity within the modern urban context among people who have different ideological, social and religious orientations, and social and economic backgrounds and scientific and cultural in the Iraqi society.
